What is the APMP certificate?

The APMP certificate is a knowledge-based qualification that allows candidates to acquire a general understanding of all aspects of project management. The APM delivers the APMP qualification, which is recognised globally and is adaptable to many industries. This APMP training course covers a variety of subjects, as it highlights the vital management tools needed to successfully monitor and control a project, as well as more general training regarding organisation, people management, finance, and environmental issues. Primarily, the APMP certificate course enables candidates to understand how the managerial elements interact with each other, and how their project fits into a commercial setting. The APMP certificate runs over a period of 5 days, with an exam taken on the final day. The course consists of teaching led by an instructor, alongside some practical tasks.

Who can take the APMP training course?

The APMP certificate is available to everyone, and there is no need for prior experience or knowledge. The APMP training course is suitable for those interested in project management roles.

What are the objectives of the APMP certificate?

At the end of completing the APMP course delegates will be:

- APMP Qualified (requires exam to be passed first)
- Knowledgeable on project management and the processes
- Able to apply this knowledge in their everyday work life

How are APMP certification candidates assessed?

The APMP exam is included with this course and lasts for 3 hours in total and is a written examination. To successfully pass the exam you will have to answer 10 out of 16 questions.

Pre-course Reading

We will provide APMP certificate pre-course reading, however, we also recommend that you purchase the APM Body of Knowledge 6th edition to further enhance the effects of the course. The pre-course reading is there to prepare you for the APMP training, and to make sure your knowledge and understanding are at an optimal level to give you the best training experience.

Evening Work

We will be providing you with homework to complete over the duration of the APMP course. This will help you to continually learn and maintain the knowledge learned during the sessions. To ensure maximum learning retention it is advised that you complete all assigned homework tasks.
